

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

DRIVING LICENCE & FITNESS. You must hold a current driving licence; provisional, full or international. If there are any changes in licence, you must inform your driving instructor straight away. You must be fit to drive with regards to legal and medical standards and inform your driving instructor straight away of medical changes while having driving lessons.

DRIVING TEST. The driving instructor has the right of withdrawal of the car from a test without notice if the pupil is not up to standard. The instructor will ensure that the vehicle supplied is fully roadworthy and complies with legal requirements, if the vehicle breaks down during the test and is not liable for any loss. DVSA cancel the test for any reason e.g. bad weather, staff shortages. Cancellation is beyond the control of the instructor and therefore the lesson fee and use of the car for the booked period will be charged.

CANCELLATION. 48 hours' notice must be given or will be charged. The driving instructor has the right to cancel lesson at short notice, if suspecting that the pupil may be unfit to drive due to the effect of alcohol, drugs, or any other condition that would cause his/her driving to be illegal. In these situations, the lesson fee would be payable. Your instructor has the right to postpone lessons in certain circumstances i.e. dangerous weather conditions, mechanical breakdown or illness. In that situation, any fee paid in advance will be carried forward.

OFFERS. Only one offer per pupil and new pupils only.

BLOCK BOOKINGS. Must be paid in advance to receive a discount.

PAYMENTS. Must be paid 24 hours before the lesson by bank transfer. No money, no lesson.

TRAINING LOCATION. All lessons start and finish at the same location, unless agreed upon prior to the start of the lesson. Instructor will determine where practical lessons can start, this may require the driving instructor to drive the pupil to and from location, this journey time is part of the lesson as paid for.
